It usually happens that the best citizens in a community let the people find the fact out for themselves.

Some women are not going to be happy in heaven if they are not allowed to change the furniture around at least once a week.

You may have noticed that a second hand automobile has never been run more than enough to demonstrate its qualities.

The president elect is consulting with the "best minds," but the political bosses think the best minds are those that mind best.

A man with an open countenance can be appreciated, but it is the man with the open mouth who makes a nuisance of himself.

Many a person who does not care especially for music becomes interested in the offertory when the collection is being taken.

An expert asserts that government economy is necessary to lower taxes. One not an expert could pretty nearly arrive at that conclusion.

Most people, if they really want to know who caused the high prices can locate at least one of the guilty parties by looking in a mirror.

Unfortunately no girl has yet been able to make up for the lack of stuff inside her head, by putting two inches of sole leather into her high heels.

The Best Cough Medicine.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Cubrun, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

ANOTHER LEXINGTON CASE

It Proves That There's A Way Out for Many Suffering Lexington Folks.

Just another report of a case in Lexington. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Lexington with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Henry Kroeck, Sr., retired farmer, 2009 Main St., Lexington says: "Some years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me splendid relief. An attack of the grip left my kidneys weak and they acted irregularly, bothering me day and night. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me fine relief. I always keep Doan's on hand and use them occasionally as a kidney tonic."

The above statement was given September 16, 1916, and on March 12, 1920, Mr. Kroeck added: "Time will never change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and I shall always be glad to recommend them. Doan's cured me of a weak and aching back and kidney disorder and the cure has lasted. I gladly confirm all I said in praise of them some years ago."

SYMPATHY FOR HARDING

What a nauseating sight to see individuals and newspapers who were merciless in their attacks on President Wilson when he was at the point of death putting out pleas for sympathy for the robust man who is to succeed him! The strain upon him since election, arduous though it may have been, is not to be compared with that upon Wilson when, with health broken, he had to fight against enemies at home as well as abroad. Sympathy for Harding will be more in order when the many elements that figured in his election demand fulfillment of some of the wild promises made to them by Republican politicians.

The campaign that turned every form of hyphenate hate against the Democratic president and kept up slanders against him when he was too ill to reply has not been forgotten. No one more than Harding himself knows that he is in no position to make a plea for sympathy. His newspaper allowed no sentimental considerations to restrain it from criticism of former President Roosevelt in 1912 when he was in a hospital suffering from an assassin's bullet.

Moreover, pleas for sympathy for the sturdy Harding before he has even taken office not only seem out of place under these circumstances, but they are disquieting. If Republican office-seekers alone can distress him at the start, what about the real burdens of his position so soon to be assumed?

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. E.83
